Wednesday, August 1. 1705.

Amsterdam, July 31.

THE following Particulars have lately been transmitted hither in Letters from Franc.

Madam de Sacy, formerly the Marchioness de Rive, is put into the Bastile; for what Cause is not known. The 4 Persons who lately broke out of the Castle of Pierre Encize, (in the manner that has been fully related in the publick Prints) were the Count de Forest de la Barre, Monsieur de la Place Treasurer of the French Custom House at St. Julien near Geneva, Monsieur Galandre, and the Chevalier de Marfontaine. The first of them who is an Officer of the Garrison of Montmeillan, was taken at Chambery as a Spy: The second was confin'd upon suspicion of having had an Understanding with the Duke of Savoy's Troops that seiz'd and carried off a great Sum of Money that was in his Office: The third was a Merchant of Neufchattel, who was accus'd of being concern'd in exporting Old Louis d' Or out of France. And the fourth is a Gentleman of Macon; I am not inform'd what Crime he is charg'd with. These 4 Persons, when they had made themselves Masters of the Castle, by killing the Governour and securing his Servants; offer'd to set at Liberty all the other Prisoners; but they were so silly as to refuse it, one Vaudois excepted, who had Sense and Courage enough to accept their Offer.

So they left behind them 20 Persons, most of whose Names, Age, Quality, Birth-Place, and Cause of Confinement, follow. (The first Ten are imprison'd on Account of Religion.) Monsieur de la Croisette, Captain of the Regiment of Cava, born at Uzez, 90 Years old. Monsieur de Montaren, aged 70 Years; Monsieur de Bolerne, a Lawyer of Xaintonge, 80 Years old; Monsieur de Saufet a Gentleman of Languedoc, 60 Years old; Monsieur des Vaux a Gentleman of Poitou, 70 Years old; Monsieur Morinau of Poitou, 70 Years old; Monsieur Cojand, a Minister, of Poitou, 65 Years old; Monsieur Blaive, a Lawyer of Sedan, he has been a Prisoner 19 Years; Monsieur de la Nogareda, a Gentleman of Languedoc, 60 Years old! Monsieur Bourly of Montpellier. Monsieur de la Roche, one of Monsieur de Louvois's Clerks, for making out false Rountes. The Marquis de Guebri-ant, Governour of the Castle de l'Oeuf, his Son is a Lieutenant General, the Cause of his Detentson is not known. The Count du Breuil, accus'd of counterfeiting the Coyn; Monsieur de la Farge, a Clerk of the Farms, charg'd with being concern'd in sending old Louis d' Or out of the Kingdom; The Provost of Douay, accus'd of Iansenism; Monsieur Flusing, a Lawyer of the Franche Compte, charg'd with holding a Correspondence in Germany, and designing to retire into the Empire with his Son an Ingenier; Father du Vail a Franciscan, an Irishman, suspected of being a Spy; Monsieur de Grammont, Counsellor of the Parliament of Paris, aged 65 Years, imprison'd for some Fault in officiating as a Judge; an Irishman, who since his Confinement is run mad; a Friar who attempted to help Monsieur Flusing to escape out of Prison.

Tis pretended the Conspiracy the Marquis de Leganez had form'd against the Person of King Philip V. of Spain, was discover'd by a Swiss; who being in a Publick-House, accidentally overheard some feign'd Deserters talk in general Terms of an Enterprize of great Moment, and in particular that it was easy to get over the Walls of the Garden of Buen Retiro they being very low: Upon which entertaining a Suspicion those Persons had form'd some Plot, he acquainted one of the Ministers of the Court with what he had heard; which agreeing with other Intelligence the Court had receiv'd concerning the Marquis de Leganez, determin'd the King and his Cabinet Council to cause that Marquis to be seiz'd and imprison'd.

The Pope's Nuncio having deliver'd to the King a Letter from the present Emperor, another from the Empress, and a third from the Empress Dowager, in which they notifie to his Majesty the Death of the Emperor Leopold; his Majesty has put himself into Mourning, in the Habit usual on such an Occasion.

Portsmouth, July 29. Yesterday came in Her Majesty's Ship the Greenwich, from the Downes; and under her Convoy about 16 Merchant Ships and Coasters. The Captain in his Passage from the Downes hither, met 2 Dutch Runners, which came from Leghorne but last from Gibraltar; which Place they left in a good Condition, the Garrison being well in Health. The Dutchmen report they met the Confederate Fleet off Cape Spartel, consisting of 52 Men of War: They likewise say, they they heard at Gibraltar, that 10000 Men had revolted in Catalonia, and that the Confederate Fleet was expected on that Coast. Our West India and Portugal Ships continue at Spithead.
